OK we're gonna win this war!
 It's not time yet, but we're prepared.
 We'll blow 'em up! Santa Anna disgusts me so we must win against him. The territory rightfully belongs to us. This will also give us victory or death.
 The Mexicans have 1,000 men and we have 300, but they will surrender or die. However, we will win! They may have many men but, they lack skill. SO let's win this war! Remember win that war!
