

Questions/Main Ideas:	Name: _____ Class: _____ Period: _____ Topic: Writing to Describe – Answer Key Date: _____ Notes:
Why should we write to describe?	Descriptions give the reader a vivid picture, allowing them to see the images you
	want them to see.
How can we create good descriptions?	Authors sometimes use adjectives or adverbs to describe.
	- Adjectives describe nouns and answer:
	1) What kind?
	2) Which one?
	3) How many?
	4) How much?
	Example: The purple, furry dog ran by.
	- Adverbs modify verbs, adverbs, or adjectives and answer:
	1) Where?
	2) When?
	3) In What Way?
	4) To what extent?
	Example: Close the window quickly.
	Example: She was very sad.
Summary:

